

Hong Kong Green Strategy Alliance 香港綠色策略聯盟

“綠色策略，共創未來”

Fellow Member

Mr. Victor C. Li

BEng, MPhil, PDipCD

Chairman, Hong Kong Waste Management Association

Vice President, Hong Kong Environmental Industry Association.

Member, HKSAR's Environment and Conservation Fund (ECF) Research Projects

Vetting Subcommittee (RPVS)

Victor C. Li is currently the Business Development Director of Dunwell Enviro-Tech (Holdings) Ltd., one of the pioneering environmental management and technology providers in Hong Kong. Mr. Li has over 19 years experience in environmental & waste management fields and substantial experience in introducing and lining up overseas environmental technologies for Hong Kong and People's Republic of China. He oversees the Hong Kong operation of various chemical waste management programs, remediation and cleanup, one stop recycling services and energy saving for clients including HKSAR government, major utility companies, property management sectors, transportation companies, etc. Mr Li has been actively advising various used oil recycling and environmental companies from Europe, North America, Middle East, Africa, Asia-Pacific on the latest technological development and market dynamics.

MEMBER'S PROFILE