“How Hong Kong Can Handle its Residual Waste Apart from Implementing Source Reduction & Recycling”

簡介 Introduction

香港每天都產生大量廢物，每天約有 1.3 萬噸廢物需作處理。現時，所有廢物都棄置於三個堆填區，但顯然這並不是長遠之計。

香港政府《在香港資源循環藍圖 2013-2022》中，承諾透過源頭減廢及循環利用，將都市固體廢物的人均棄置量，減少 40%。但是，香港仍須就如何處理剩餘的廢物，取得共識。為討論此議題，香港綠色策略聯盟籌組織本論壇，以聚集本地與海外的廢物處理專家，就世界各地廢物處理的經驗、模式及相關知識作分享，並與與會者交流意見。

Hong Kong generates large volume of wastes and of which 13,000 tonne/day requires disposal. At the moment, all the wastes are being disposed of at the three landfill sites and obviously this is not a sustainable solution.

In the Hong Kong Blueprint for Sustainable Use of Resource 2013-2022, the Government has pledged to reduce municipal solid waste disposal rate by 40% on a per capita basis through strengthened source reduction and recycling measures. However, Hong Kong still needs to build up consensus on the best approach to handle the residual waste.

In order to facilitate the discussion, the Hong Kong Green Strategy Alliance (HKGSA) has organized this forum by pooling together a group of local and overseas waste management experts to share the experience, approaches and knowledge practiced elsewhere to solve the waste disposal problem and more importantly to exchange views amongst the participants.
